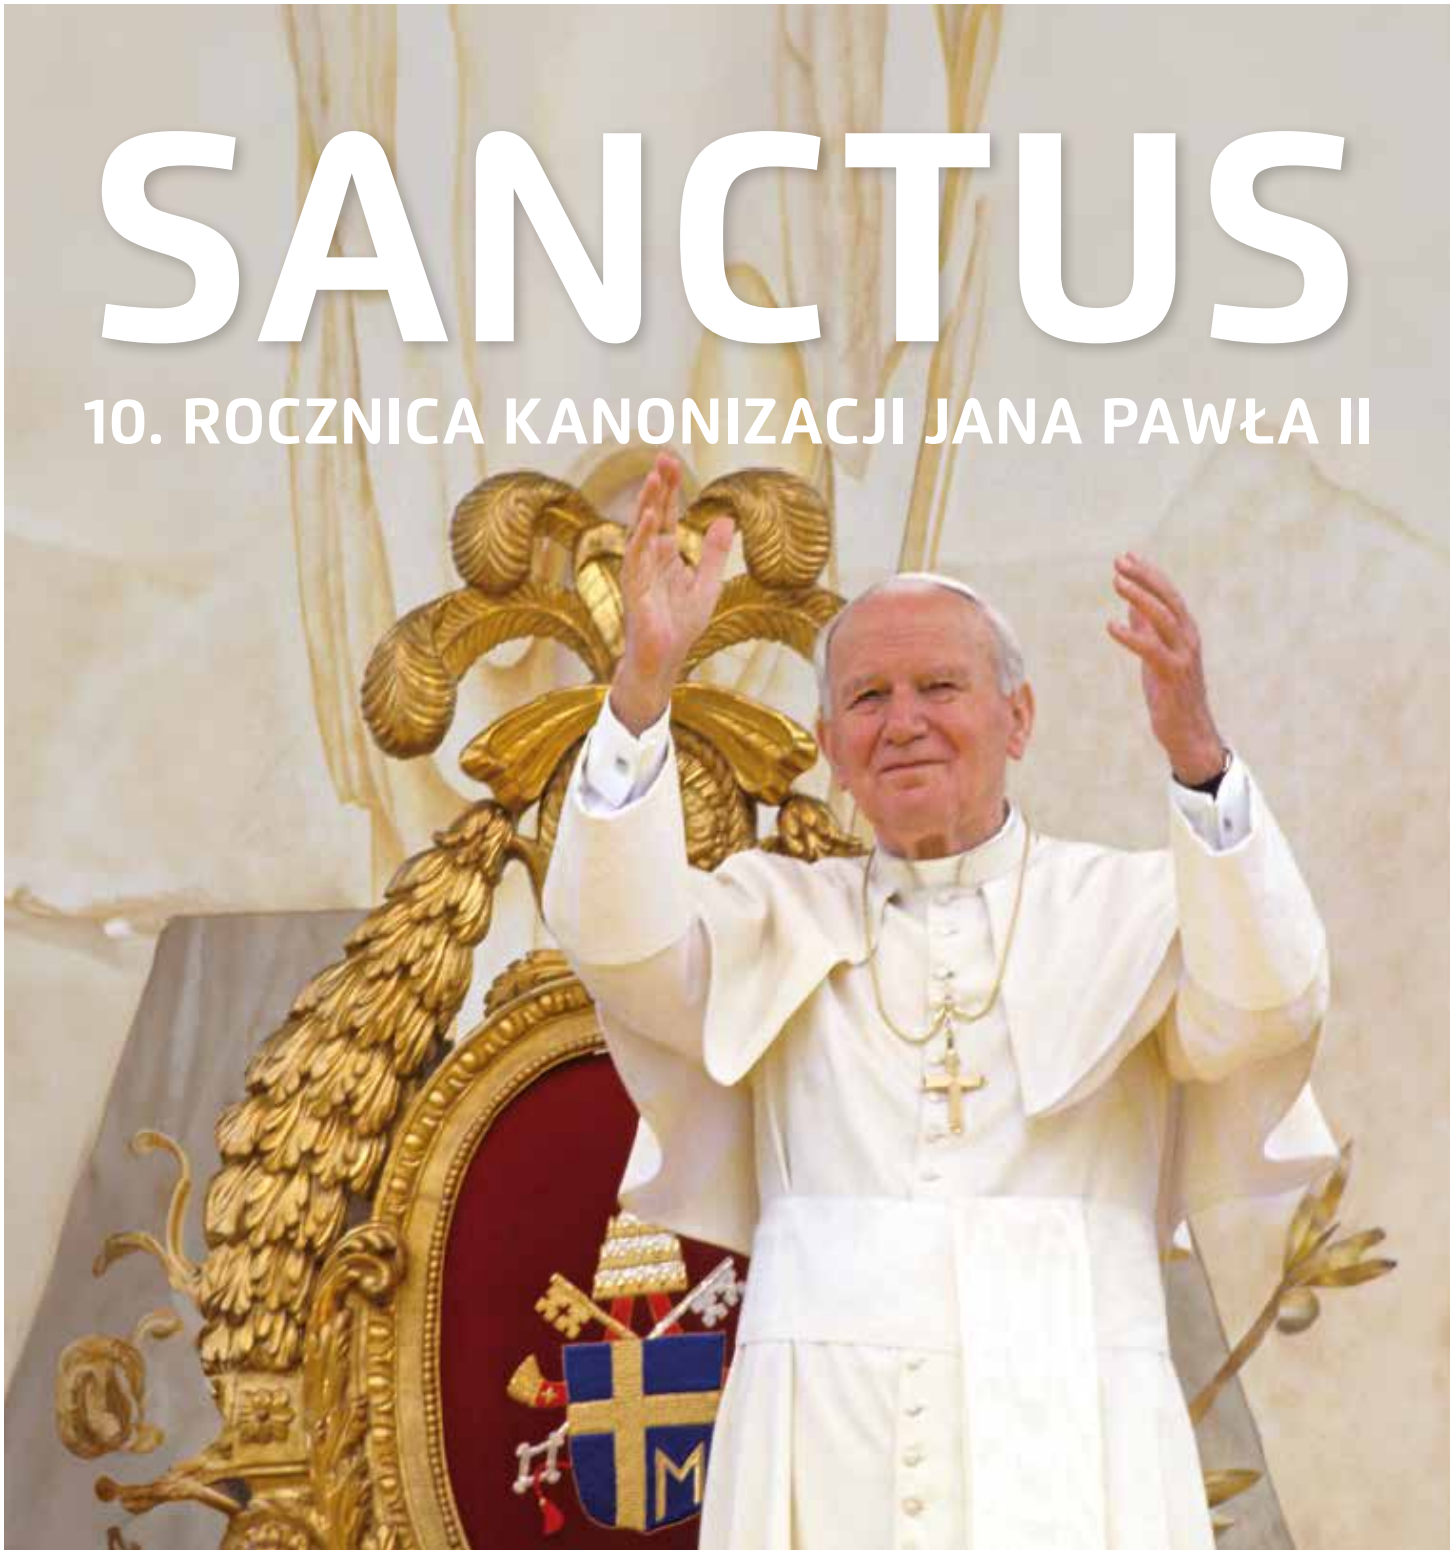
SANCTUS

10. ROCZNICA KANONIZACJI JANA PAWŁA II



Vatican Celebration of the 10th Anniversary of St. John Paul II Canonisation

On 27 April 2024, a solemn Mass was celebrated in St Peter's Basilica to thank God for the gift of the life and holiness of John Paul II. It was presided over by the Dean of the College of Cardinals, Cardinal Giovanni Battista Re. In his introduction to the liturgy he stated: "Ten years after his canonization and nineteen years after his death, Pope St. John Paul II is more alive than ever, in minds and hearts. His example and teaching have strengthened the faith and spoken to the heart of every person." The Eucharist was concelebrated by dozens of cardinals along with St. John Paul II's personal secretary, Cardinal Stanisław Dziwisz, as well as numerous bishops and priests. It was attended by several thousands of the faithful from Italy, Poland and other countries. The Secretary of State of the Holy See, Cardinal Pietro Parolin, was present, as were representatives of the diplomatic corps accredited to the Holy See. In his homily Cardinal Angelo Comastri referred to the day of the Polish pope's funeral on April 8, 2005, recalling the moment when the wind began to turn the pages of the gospel book placed on the coffin. "We asked ourselves then: who was John Paul II? Why did we love him so much?" And he explained: "The invisible hand turning over the pages of the gospel seemed to be telling us: ‚The answer is in the Gospel! John Paul II's life was a constant obedience to the Gospel of Jesus, and for this reason the wind told us! For this reason you loved him!" Before the blessing Cardinal Stanislaw Dziwisz spoke, saying "We thank God for the fruits of faith, hope and love that the holiness of John Paul II brought, that he continues to bring to the Church. May his witness help us always open the door to Christ." The cardinal expressed gratitude to Pope Benedict XVI, who opened the way for the beatification of the Polish Pope, and Pope Francis, who declared him a saint exactly 10 years ago. He thanked all those who took part in the ceremony. At the end, Cardinal Dziwisz placed a bouquet of white roses on the Holy Father's tomb and said a special prayer commending the Church, families, the young and the cause of world peace to his intercession.

Justice and Peace Center in Kampala, Uganda, wins first St. John Paul II award

On May 22, 2024, the first "Premio San Giovanni Paolo II" award, established by the Vatican's John Paul II Foundation, was presented at the Vatican in the Royal Hall of the Apostolic Palace. The statuette, depicting outstretched hands in reference to Michelangelo's fresco "The Creation of Adam," made by Polish sculptor Karolina Koch, was presented to Fr. Leonard Olobo, director of the award-winning center, by Vatican Secretary of State Cardinal Pietro Parolin. Cardinal Kurt Koch, chairman of the Saint John Paul II Award Council, was asked to present the commemorative Diploma. The laureate also received a financial award of €30,000. The John Paul II Center was established in 2006 in response to John Paul II's post-synodal apostolic exhortation "Ecclesia in Africa." As many as seven religious orders are involved in the center's activities, including the Combonians, Jesuits, Mill Hill Missionaries, Missionaries of the Holy Cross (Fr. Olobo belongs to this congrega-tion) and Missionaries of Africa. The center assists refugees from war-torn countries in that region, running programs dealing with a wide range of issues such as prevention of human trafficking, educa-tion, access to water, food and electricity, caring for street children in Kampala and providing legal and medical assistance as well as financial support. For Rev. Leonard Olobo, the award came as a complete surprise. "We simply did what we thought was right, out of a conviction to promote human dignity," he said, "but now we have to do more because we have been recognized. The award has giv-en everyone strength and motivation to continue the work that grew out of the inspi-ration of St. John Paul II."Procedures for the award are strictly defined by regulations. The Chapter, consisting of ex officio members and elected members, is responsible for selecting the winner. Each member of the Chapter may propose one or two candidates. The selection pro-cess includes a vetting and discussion phase followed by a final decision. The Chapter selecting the laureate consists of 13 people, including six Poles (Cardi-nal Stanislaw Dziwisz, Archbishop Marek Jędraszewski, Bishop Sławomir Oder, Fa-ther Michal Paluch OP, Msgr. Pawel Ptasznik, Prof. Hanna Suchocka). The chair-man of the chapter is Cardinal Kurt Koch. Other members include Sister Helen Al-ford (dean at the faculty of social sciences at the Pontifical Angelicum University and president of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences), Prof. Carl Anderson (Order of the Knights of Columbus), Prof. Daniel Arasa (dean of the faculty of in-stitutional social communication at the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross), Prof. Michaela C. Hastetter (holds the chair of pastoral theology and religious educa-tion at the ITI Catholic University in Trumau, and teaches at the University of Al-bert-Ludwig in Freiburg), Prof. Roberto Morozzo della Rocca (associate professor of modern history at Roma Tre University), and Prof. Paul Weston (university lecturer, since 1985 at the Vatican School of Library Science).

From December 3rd to 6th, 2023, Msgr. Dariusz Giers, visited the New York Society of the John Paul II Foundation and its New Jersey Chapter, as well as the Diocesan Shrine of St. John Paul II, which operates at the Holy Rosary Parish in Passaic, NJ. The Christmas wafer meeting in New York was preceded by a Mass at the Holy Cross Church in Maspeth, presided over by the Rev. Administrator. Addressing those gathered he expressed his gratitude for the invitation to share in the joy of the Christmas season together with members of the NY Chapter of the Foundation. Following the Eucharist members of the Circle, together with their families and friends, went to the Princess Manor Banquet Hall in Greenpoint. After President Mieczysław Pająk welcomed guests, the Rev. Administrator spoke, reminding everyone of the Foundation's goals and asking for continued support and commitment to this important work. As an expression of support, three checks for a total of $31,000 were presented by the circle President. The dinner was followed by a raffle, the proceeds of which were donated to the Foundation's scholarship program in Lublin. The meeting concluded with much singing of Christmas carols. The Rev. Administrator also visited the Chapter of Friends of the Foundation of NJ in Hewitt at the parish of St. Mary the Queen, where the Polish Mission operates. After thanking Mr. Mieczysław Boksz, president of the Circle, for the invitation he encouraged renewed support for the work of St. John Paul II. A pleasant surprise was an invitation to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boksz, from which the Foundation's Bulletin is distributed across the US and Canada. The last leg of the trip in the state of New Jersey was the Diocesan Shrine of St. John Paul II, which operates at the Holy Rosary Parish in Passaic. The Rev. Administrator was hosted by Father Stefan Andrzej Las, the parish priest, who is concerned with promoting the Polish Pope, especially among children and young people. The Polish Supplementary School, which has been operating at the parish since 2010, is key to this work. The Rev. Administrator had the opportunity to meet with the students of the school during Sunday Mass. He recalled his meetings with Pope St. John Paul II and emphasized the importance of his pontificate for the Church and the world. "For the gift of a Pope from the Polish lineage," he said, "we should be constantly grateful to God and proud before other nations."

Support for the Foundation: How Can You Help?

The Foundation can achieve its goals thanks to the financial and moral support of its friends, who see its activities as contributing to the great work of Pope John Paul II's pontificate. The generosity of these individuals was highlighted by the Holy Father during an audience with the Foundation's benefactors on October 26, 1995, when he said:

"The 'good fruits' (of the Foundation) could only see the light of day thanks to the goodwill of many people, who individually and through numerous Friends of the Foundation Circles in many countries spared no expense to support this important work. ...I thank you for what you do for the continued development of this valuable institution and entrust its future to your generosity."

How Can You Help the Foundation?

- Join or establish a Circle or Society of Friends of the John Paul II Foundation.
- Spread information about the Foundation and its works.
- Send a financial contribution or donation to the Foundation.
- Remember the Foundation in your will.

How to Support Our Organization Regularly?

You can help us through regular, for example, monthly payments. Just set up a standing order at your bank to transfer a specified amount to the account of the Vatican John Paul II Foundation. The amount you declare can be of any value.
